2. PURPOSE AND EFFECT OF THE OFFER

2.1 Purpose of Offer

Immediately prior to the period in which this Offer is open, the Company issued 70,000,000 Shares at an issue price of $0.05 to raise $3,500,000 (Placement Shares).

The Placement Shares were issued to institutional, sophisticated and professional style investors who are not related parties of the Company. The Placement Shares were issued without a prospectus. The Corporations Act restricts the trading of securities that are issued without a prospectus. The purpose of the Offer is to allow Shareholders holding the Placement Shares to be able to sell them without trading restrictions. This Prospectus has been prepared for the purpose of section 708A(11)(b)(i) of the Corporations Act to remove any secondary sales restrictions on the sale of the Placement Shares. Section 708A(11)(b)(i) of the Corporations Act removes secondary sale restrictions where this Prospectus is lodged with ASIC on or after the day on which the Placement Securities were issued but before the day on which the Placement Securities are offered for sale.

Under the Offer, the Company will invite an investor to subscribe for 1 Share for $0.05 which is the same price per share at which the last Placement Shares were issued. The Company will only receive a nominal amount of $0.05 under this Prospectus and therefore raising funds is not a purpose of the Offer.

2.2 Effect of the Offer

The effect of the Offer will be to remove the secondary trading sale restrictions on the Placement Shares issued prior to the date this Prospectus was lodged with ASIC.

The Offer will further:

- (a) increase the number of Shares on issue by 1 Share; and
- (b) decrease the cash reserves of the Company by approximately $3,000 being the estimated costs of the Offer.

2.3 Capital Structure

The capital structure of the Company after the issue of 1 Share under this Prospectus is set out below.

	Number
SHARES
Existing Shares (excluding the Placement Shares)	274,992,277
Placement Shares	70,000,000
Share to be issued under this Prospectus	1
Total	343,992,278
OPTIONS
Quoted options	88,164,528
Unquoted options	73,243,964
Total	161,408,492

Notes:

- (a) This table assumes that no additional Shares are issued by the Company before the Closing Date and that no options are exercised before the Closing Date.
- (b) After the Closing Date and subject to Shareholder approval being obtained at a general meeting of the Company to be held as soon as possible, the Company will issue a further 20,000,000 shares and 20,000,000 unquoted options as part of the Placement.

2.4 Effect on Financial Position

The issue of 1 Share under this Prospectus will not have a material impact on the Company's financial position. For this reason a pro-forma statement of financial position of the Company showing the financial effect of the Offer has not been included in this Prospectus.

2.5 Risk factors

2.5.1 Introduction

There are risks which may impact on the operating and financial performance of the Company and, therefore, on the value of the New Share offered under this Prospectus. Some of these risks can be mitigated by the Company's systems and internal controls, but many are outside of the control of the Company and of the Board. There can be no guarantee that the Company will achieve its stated objectives or that any forward-looking statements will eventuate. An investment in a business with limited operating history, such as Rampart Energy, is considered speculative and an investor could lose most or all of any investment. There are also general risks associated with any investment in shares.

More specifically, the risks are that:

- the price at which the Applicant is able to sell the New Share is less than the price paid due to changes in market circumstances;
- the Applicant is unable to sell the New Share;
- the Company is placed in receivership or liquidation making it reasonably foreseeable that Shareholders could receive none, or only some of their initial investment; and
- the Company fails to generate sufficient profit in order to pay dividends.

In the event of insolvency, the holders of fully paid ordinary Shares would not normally be liable to pay money to any person. Potential investors should therefore carefully consider all associated risks before applying for the New Share under this Prospectus and should consider their personal circumstances (including financial and taxation issues) and seek advice from their stockbroker, accountant, solicitor or other professional advisers before deciding whether to invest.

A number of material risk factors which may adversely affect the Company and the value of the New Share offered under this Prospectus are set out in this Section. This is not an exhaustive list and there may be other factors which have an adverse effect on the Company and the value of the New Share offered under this Prospectus.

2.5.2 Key risks specific to an investment in the Company Tenure Risk

The Company is not the registered holder of the petroleum projects located in Alaska (USA), in which the Company holds interests (Petroleum Interests). The petroleum interests held by the Company and in which the Company has an interest are subject to applicable laws regarding exploration, expenditure and renewal of such interests in the jurisdictions in which the Company holds those petroleum interests.

The Company is not the registered holder of the geothermal projects located in Djibouti, in which the Company retains interests (Geothermal Interests). The Geothermal Interests held by the Company and in which the Company has an interest are subject to applicable laws regarding exploration, expenditure and renewal of such interests in the jurisdictions in which the Company holds those geothermal interests. If a Geothermal or Petroleum Interest is not granted or renewed (as the case may be) or access cannot be secured to carry out operations, the Company could be adversely affected as a result of the consequential loss of opportunity to discover and develop the Company's petroleum and geothermal interests.

Licenses and permits for Petroleum and Geothermal Interests are for a specified term and carry annual expenditure and reporting commitments and, if not met, the holder could lose title to its interest in the tenements. Equally, activities are required to keep the interests in good administrative standing. There is a risk that these permits could be terminated or reduced if the holder is unable to show cause for any delays to fulfilling commitments.

Evaluation Risk

The current and future operations of the Company may be affected by a range of factors, including (but not limited to):

- limitations on activities due to seasonal weather patterns;
- alterations to exploration programs and budgets;
- unanticipated operational and technical difficulties encountered in drilling, development, and production activities;
- mechanical failure of operating plant and equipment or late supply thereof;
- adverse weather conditions, industrial and environmental accidents, industrial disputes and an event of force majeure;
- unavailability of drilling, production and surface plant and other equipment;
- unexpected shortages or increases in the costs of consumables, spare parts, plant and equipment and labour;
- prevention of access by reason of inability to obtain regulatory or landowner consents or approvals, or indigenous and cultural issues;
- terms imposed by government on project development including conditions such as environmental rehabilitation, royalty rates and taxes;
- delays in completing feasibility studies and obtaining necessary development approvals;
- risks of default or non-performance by third parties providing essential services.
- No assurance can be given that tenure can be secured, that future exploration and development will be successful.

The ultimate success and financial viability of the Company depends on securing and retaining title to tenure, the discovery and delineation of economically recoverable reserves and resources, and competent operational and managerial performance. Even given these outcomes the Company cannot guarantee that it can be profitably exploited.

Environmental Regulation and Risk

The interests of the Company are or may be subject to various laws and regulations regarding environmental matters and the discharge of hazardous waste and materials. These include standards and obligations to remediate current and former facilities and locations where operations are or were conducted.

The Company may be required to comply from time to time with environmental management issues that arise from factors beyond its control and the conduct of any activities in the projects in which the Company has an interest may be subject to the receipt of environmental approvals. The conduct of any exploration or exploitation of petroleum interests in Alaska is also subject to the receipt of all necessary environmental approvals. There can be no guarantee that such approvals will be forthcoming. Furthermore, the conditions imposed for the grant of such approvals may be so onerous that they render a project uneconomic.

To mitigate environmental risk, the Company intends to ensure that it has appropriate insurance cover to mitigate any environmental risk, however, in certain circumstances the Company's insurance may not be of a nature or level to provide adequate insurance cover. The occurrence of an event that is not covered by insurance could have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Changes in Government Policy and Laws

Changes in government laws, regulations, policies and administrative regimes, particularly those affecting ownership of tenure, taxation, royalties, land access, labour relations, the development and production of fossil fuels, environmental pollution and mining and exploration activities, may adversely affect the financial performance or the current and proposed operations generally of the Company. These changes may increase operating costs and have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Taxation

In all places where the Company has operations or interests in projects, in addition to the normal level of income tax imposed on all industries, the Company may be required to pay government royalties, indirect taxes, goods and services tax and other imposts which generally relate to revenue or cash flows. Industry profitability can be affected by changes in government taxation policies.

Economic Risks

General economic conditions, movements in interest and inflation rates and currency exchange rates may have an adverse effect on the Company's exploration, development and production activities, as well as on its ability to fund those activities and potential future revenues.

Operating Risks

The operations of the Company may be affected by various factors including operational and technical difficulties, difficulties in commissioning and operating plant and equipment, mechanical failure or plant breakdown, unanticipated geotechnical and metallurgical problems which may affect extraction costs, adverse reservoir conditions, weather conditions, unexpected maintenance, unplanned capital expenditure, industrial and environmental accidents, industrial disputes and unexpected shortages or increases in the costs of consumables, spare parts, plant and equipment. The occurrence of any of these factors could result in substantial liability being incurred by the Company.

To mitigate the impact of the factors mentioned above which may affect the operations of the Company, it intends to ensure that appropriate insurance is maintained within ranges of coverage that the Company believes to be consistent with industry practice and having regard to the nature of activities being conducted. No assurance, however, can be given that the Company will be able to obtain such insurance coverage at reasonable rates or that any coverage it arranges will be adequate and available to cover any potential claims. Insurance cover may not be available for every risk faced by the Company. The occurrence of an event that is not covered or fully covered by insurance could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of the Company.

Reliance on Key Management

The Company is dependent on its Directors', managers' and consultants' abilities to implement the Company's strategy in respect of securing title to the projects in which the Company holds interests and the exploration and possible development of the Company's interests. A number of factors, including the departure of senior management of the Company, could adversely affect the Company's ability to implement its strategy.

The success of the Company's operations may also depend on continued access to competent management and technical expertise, prudent financial administrators and the availability of appropriately skilled and experienced employees, contractors and consultants operating in relevant sectors. In the event that the Company is unable to source such personnel, the Company could be adversely affected.

Competition Risk

The energy industry in which the Company is involved is subject to country and global competition. Although the Company will undertake all reasonable due diligence in its business direction and operations, the Company will have no influence or control over the activities or actions of its competitors, which activities or actions may, positively or negatively, affect the operating and financial performance of the Company's projects and business.

Additional Capital Requirements

The Company is an exploration company and will need further financing for the development of projects. Accordingly it must continue to fund its exploration, feasibility, design and construction planning programs through its cash reserves, equity capital or debt. The viability of the Company is therefore dependent upon the Company's access to further capital through debt or equity. There can be no guarantee that the Company will be able to successfully raise project debt or equity finance.

In addition, if the Company is not able to secure further funds through debt or equity this may adversely affect the Company's ability to meet any obligations including the payment of funds to government agencies in order to maintain its tenement interests or the tenure which underlie the Alaskan petroleum interest. Furthermore, any additional equity financing may dilute shareholdings, and debt financing may involve restrictions on financing and operating activities.

Contractual Risk

The Company's ability to secure title to projects in which it has an interest and to efficiently conduct its operations in a number of respects depends upon a number of contracts. As in any contractual relationship, the ability for the Company to ultimately receive the benefit of the contract is dependent upon the relevant third party complying with its contractual obligations. To the extent that such third parties default in their obligations, it may be necessary for the Company to enforce its rights under any of the contracts and pursue legal action. Such legal action may be costly and no guarantee can be given by the Company that a legal remedy will ultimately be granted on appropriate terms.

Copahue Project

By agreement with Geothermal One Inc, the holder of the Copahue Project in Argentina, the Company has formally withdrawn from, and is no longer a joint venture participant in, the Copahue Project.

Under the terms of its agreement with the Company, Geothermal One has agreed to assume obligations in respect of the Copahue Project from 7 January 2013 and to indemnify the Company from any and all legal actions. Under the agreement, the Company agreed to pay, and has paid, to Geothermal One the sum of USD$125,000 and loaned to Geothermal One the sum of US$125,000. While Geothermal One has agreed to take on any and all liability for the Copahue Project and to indemnify the Company for any legal actions, unforeseen or other liabilities and actions may arise which may require the Company to commence legal action or defend any action if the indemnity by Geothermal One is not sufficient.

While participating in the Copahue Project the Company and Geothermal One were required by the Argentinean provincial government to give a joint and several guarantee for the maximum amount of US$4 million as a performance bond as required under the concession contract awarded to develop the Copahue Project. This was provided to the government under a performance bond insurance policy obtained by the Company and Geothermal One in Argentina. The Company has no further interest in the Copahue Project following its agreement with Geothermal One to withdraw from it, and Geothermal One has assumed all responsibility and liability for the Copahue Project. For the purposes of section 713(5) of the Corporations Act 2001 the Company is aware that the performance bond has been called (and subsequently disputed) and it may need to commence legal action to enforce the Company's rights under the relevant laws.

Sovereign Risk and Foreign Country Risk

The Company currently has interests in foreign countries and is therefore subject to the risks normally associated with the conduct of business in foreign countries. Risks pertaining to such foreign countries may include among other things, labour disputes, corruption, uncertain political and economic environments, civil disturbances and crime and arbitrary changes in laws or policies.

In addition, the Company must conform to the taxation regimes in the foreign countries in which it has interests. These regimes may be subject to change. The foreign investment policies in the foreign countries in which the Company holds interests may affect the Company's ability to conduct business in these countries, successfully repatriate funds to Australia and retain its foreign assets.

Currency Risk

Adverse movements in the exchange rate may materially impact on commodity prices and the commercial viability of specific projects.

The revenues, earnings, assets and liabilities of the Company may be exposed adversely to exchange rate fluctuation. In particular, it is likely that most of the costs payable by the Company in relation to its operations in foreign countries will be paid in US dollars or other local currencies. Any shift in those exchanges against the Australian dollar could affect the financial performance and results generally of the Company.

Insurance Risk

The Company intends to adequately insure its operations in accordance with industry practice and applicable laws in the jurisdictions it operates. However, in certain circumstances the Company's insurance may not be of a nature or level to provide adequate insurance cover. The occurrence of an event that is not covered by insurance could have a material adverse effect on the Company. Insurance of all risks associated with the petroleum industry is not always available and where available the costs can be prohibitive.

Indigenous Land Rights Risk

Where the jurisdictions in which the Company holds interests have laws governing the rights of indigenous peoples to land, the Company may be subject to such laws and any restrictions imposed by such laws on the Company. Such restrictions may impact on the ability of the Company to carry out operations and manage projects in these countries.

Market Risk

The Company's possible future revenue is intended to be derived from the production of wholesale energy products. Consequently, the Company's potential future earnings are likely to be closely related to the price of those energy products.

The ability of the Company to successfully enter the commercialisation phase of its activities may depend upon its ability to acquire relevant interests in projects it does not already hold, develop its projects and sell its energy products on commercial terms and at commercial prices. Due to competition from established energy producers, there can be no assurance that the Company will ultimately be able to sell its energy produce on commercial terms.

The Company's ability to benefit from any future operations will depend on market factors, some of which may be beyond its control. The market for energy products is subject to competition and many variables and as such, may fluctuate markedly.

2.5.3 General risks

Share Market Investments

The New Securities are to be quoted on the ASX, where their price may rise or fall in relation to the Offer Price. The New Securities carry no guarantee in respect of profitability, dividends or return of capital, or the price at which they may trade on the ASX.

The value of the New Securities will be subject to the ASX market and hence there are a range of risk factors outside of the control of the Company and the Directors and officers of the Company. Such factors include the demand for and availability of Securities, movements in domestic and international interest rates and inflation rates, economic conditions and general economic outlook, exchange rates, fluctuations in the Australian and international share markets, taxation, government and monetary policies and demand and supply for capital. Returns from an investment in the New Securities offered under this Prospectus may also depend on general share market conditions, as well as the performance of the Company. Investors who decide to sell their New Securities may not receive the entire amount of their original investment. There can be no guarantee that an active market in the Securities will develop or that the price of the New Securities will increase.

General Economic Conditions

Factors such as inflation, currency fluctuations, interest rates, supply and demand, industrial disruption, government policy and legislation have an impact on operating costs, commodity prices, and the parameters in which the Company operates. Factors that may be beyond the control of the Company include:

- general economic conditions in Australia and its trading partners and, in particular, inflation rates, interest rates, exchange rates, commodity supply and demand factors;
- financial failure or default by a participant in any of the joint ventures or other contractual relationship to which the Company is, or may become, a party;
- insolvency or other managerial failure by any of the contractors used by the Company in its activities; and
- industrial disputes.

These as well as other conditions can affect the Company's future revenues and profitability and the price of its securities.

Industrial Risk

Industrial disruptions, work stoppages and accidents in the course of the Company's operations could result in losses and delays, which may adversely affect profitability.

Management Actions

The Directors will, to the best of their knowledge, experience and ability (in conjunction with management) endeavour to anticipate, identify and manage the risks inherent in the activities of the Company, but without assuming any personal liability for same, with the aim of eliminating, avoiding and mitigating the impact of risks on the performance of the Company and its securities.

Interest Rate Risk

Financial prospects could be affected by changes in the level of interest rates. The magnitude of this effect will depend on the degree of gearing and the interest rate management strategies implemented by the Board.

Speculative nature of investment

The above list of risk factors is not to be taken as exhaustive of the risks faced by the Company or by Shareholders in the Company. The above factors, and others not specifically referred to above, may in the future materially affect the financial performance of the Company and the value of the New Securities offered under this Prospectus.
